I believe my education and experience qualify me for this position. On one hand, I can speak fluent English, for I have studied it for three years as an English major. I used to guide foreign friends to visit my college, from which I've learned how to be a qualified volunteer. On the other hand, I've got a driver's license, and can work as a driver if necessary.

I'll be free next week when the sports event is held. I'll greatly appreciate it if you can give me the chance.

Looking forward to your reply.

Dear Paul,

As you know, during this summer vacation, I've taken a part-time job as a waiter in ABC restaurant. Most of the time, I was asked to serve customers, including placing orders, cleaning the table, etc.

The restaurant is well decorated and the environment is very comfortable. In addition, the co-workers there are easy-going.

The most important thing I learn from being a waiter is that you need to be patient and nice to customers. Did you do something exciting this summer? Tell me about it.

I'm looking forward to seeing you soon.
